“ To Betty and family,

Marguerite was a woman of her word. If she said she would do something you could count on her to do t. She really loved her family and friends. If she did not like you, you knew it. She was smart and wise and she did not mind sharing her wisdom. Neither did she like wasting time. She loved her nieces and nephews like the children she never had and she would do anything for them. I know you all will miss her as so will we.
