

Marion Cornelia Moyer

March 10, 1942 - May 11, 2024

Marion Cornelia Moyer (née Lewis) of Washington, DC was called home on May 11, 2024, at the blessed age of 82. She is survived by her husband, Taft Moyer, Jr. and niece Melba Black Swigart (John), also of Washington, DC. She also leaves a host of other family members, friends, and colleagues to mourn her passing.

Marion was born on March 10, 1942, to the late Thomas and Pauline Lewis in Ashland, Virginia. One of three siblings, she was predeceased by her brother, Thomas Lewis and sister, Maxine Lewis Black. She enjoyed a successful career with the federal government that included her work for U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS), from which she retired.

Marion lived a full life and loved serving the Lord. A member of DC's Walker Memorial Baptist Church for many years, she applied her accounting and bookkeeping skills to her long tenure as the church's clerk.

A friend to anyone who met her, Marion truly had a heart of gold. We hope you will join us in cherishing the memories she left with us.

“ We were saddened to receive the news of Marion's passing. As a member of the family we regret that our health won't permit us to travel at present. We want Uncle Taft to know that our love continues. We were blessed to have her as a part of us for so many years. We will miss her and the wonderful laughs we had together. We all must sooner or later receive our summon to go and meet the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Until then we must bid Marion farewell for now. We love the Moye family for all the love we have shared for more than 60 years.

“ We are deeply saddened to hear of Marion's passing. We had the privilege to meet her when she visited her Aunt Nannie in North Carolina. We became friends instantly and would have many, many phone conversations. Marion was a kind and loving person. We extend to Taft and Melba our sincere condolences and prayers. Marion was a special person to us. We will miss her and cherish all the sweet memories. Take your Heavenly Rest now, Marion. We loved you, but God loves you best.

It is with profound sadness to learn of Marion's Denise. We enjoyed many years of friendship at Walker Memorial church in Washington, D.C. Our friendship continued after my relocation to North Carolina. We shared birthday gifts and cards to each other because we were both born in March. Taft often joined in on our conversation when we talked to one another. She will be greatly missed. Taft, I will continue to check on you! Deepest sympathy and love is being extended to you. Pray that god will continue to keep you in his intimate care. Love, friend Joyce A. Greene Be Jamin 301-535-7435

“ She is and was a beautifully spirited woman. Always had a smile on her face and lots of humor. She made the best sweet potatoe pies and they were surely made with lots of love and care for whomever she gave them to. She was just a very special lady who made you feel special as well. Thank you to the family for sharing her with so many of us. I will miss her delightful smile and gentleness. Lovingly delivered Keith A. Savage.
