“ Today, I found out about Marjorie’s death. My heart is sadden. We hadn’t talked in years but I remember how she groomed me for my position while working together at the U. S. Dept of State Bureau of Counterterrorism. She use to bring me her dinner leftovers for lunch all the time. She was a mother figure that I loved dearly. Prayers & love to her family.

“ My heartfelt condolences are extended to the family of Marjorie Jackson. We first met over forty years ago at the State Department. Marjorie possessed a wealth of knowledge, expertise and charisma. What an example she was for all of us!! She will be greatly missed, but I will cherish warm memories of her in my heart forever.

“ Marjorie was my friend. I worked with her at the Deputy Secretary of State's office from 2015-2016, and my office was right next hers. I laughed and joked with Marjorie every day, and we became fast friends. Marjorie was strong, passionate, and didn't let anyone tell her how to do her job. She was a dedicated public servant, and one of the best. She knew what to do and how to do it before anyone else. I learned a lot from Marjorie, and I am forever grateful to have been in her presence. She is one of a kind, and certainly Heaven is a better place with her in it, shining down on all of us.

“ Marjorie was my closest professional colleague over more than twenty years -- and she became a dear, loving friend, with ties that have continued over our retirements from government service. I will always be indebted to her for her unstinting support and the love that she infused into our relationship. I miss her deeply but am also relieved that she no longer has to bear all the pain and agony of the past two years.

“ To Tony & Family

We shared so many great times with Margie over our long friendship and was fortunate enough to visit with her in February of this year, not knowing it would be our last. At that time we laughed about our casino vacation to Reno, Nevada, especially about how she could stay up soooo late and then have no problem getting up the next morning. She was a lot of fun to be with. We lost our friend but our memories will last forever.

You have our deepest sympathy and lots of prayers for you and your family.

Love to you all

“ I was so sadden to get the news about Marjorie W. Jackson. We have been friends for many, many years. I am so glad that I did get a chance to talk to her a few days before her passing. I will remember all the good times we had. I will remember the trip we took to Connecticut it took us hours and I mean hours to make it because we got so lost and we laugh about it for hours. Love and miss you my friend. Love and miss you my friend. And to the grand children my condolences to you all. God has a special Angel.

“ I was sadden to hear this news. I met Marjorie Jackson many years ago during my initial time working in the Department of State (1967-1978). We remained in touch during my time in the Foreign Service (1979-2005). The most outstanding aspect of our friendship and sisterhood: Marjorie could always put a smile on your face with “words of wisdom.” No matter how busy she was in her very high profile positions, Marjorie took time out to have a friendly moment and laugh. My Deepest Condolences to her family.

“ My deepest condolences to the Jackson family. I was fortunate to work with Marjorie early on in my Foreign Service career when I was serving as a Staff Assistant at the US Mission to the United Nations. I will always remember Marjorie's generosity in sharing her vast insight and knowledge as well as her sense of humor that kept all of us in a positive place. I know I speak for many others whose careers were shaped by Marjorie. My prayers and thoughts are with all who loved her. Stephanie Syptak-Ramnath

“ I want to send my condolences to the Jackson family in the passing of Marjorie. It really hurts my heart hearing the bad news. I was very blessed and fortunate to work with her when I served on former Secretary of State, Colin Powell's protective detail. She was truly loved and respected by all who came in contact with her and she truly graced us with compassion and infinite wisdom. She will definitely be missed. May God continue to watch over the family and heaven smile upon you all. Heaven has gained another angel. Special Agent Richard Crosby

“ I am writing to express my deep condolences to Marjorie’s family. Marjorie and I worked closely together when we both supported Secretary Colin Powell. She was always the consummate professional, discrete and hard working. She also like to have fun – and I will always remember fondly our many trips around the world, with thousands of hours together on the plane, working hard, but laughing and enjoying each other’s company.
