

Marvin C. Lewis

June 10, 1958 - December 11, 2020

On 06/10/1958 our beloved Marvin C Lewis was born in Washington DC to Helen Peterson-Landrum and Flex Peterson. Marvin was a true Washington Native, he went to Cardozo High School. Marvin was very into the band at Cardozo as a Drum player and eventually in his early adulthood started a band and record a few songs. Marvin was a man of the world, and loved to travel he went to Orange New Jersey where he met his girlfriend Debie and they had welcome a baby boy together and named him Marvin Lewis Jr. Due to some health issues, Marvin moved back to DC and started a new life working security and eventually became an entrepreneur in electronics and building computers and gaming systems.

Marvin was always thoughtful, loving and caring strong will and very independent. He could always light up a room with his smile and his humor. Marvin loved Atlantic City, casino's, PlayStation adventure games and food. Subway, Burger king and Popeye's were his absolute favorite. Anytime you advice or needed someone to listen to you he was there. Marvin was a man of his own world, he was a daredevil for sure.

Marvin is survived by his son Marvin Jr, his best friend and Sister Joann Peterson, his older Brother Johnny Peterson and wife Rita Peterson and his Brother Chris. His Nephew Jamal Peterson, his Cousins Covella and Clyde Jr (late Odell McCollum) (late Jerry McCollum) (Late Brother Clyde) and (late
