“ To our cousins, Kat was one of our fiery family members, always outspoken and sassy...
I remember many times coming to 1328 to ask for money or something to eat when I was a little boy, and she always gave me what she had... Kat and I had an on going thing of saying (Give me some money). Which started I guess from when I was a little boy! We will surely miss her and God made No mistake when he placed her in our lives for awhile!

“ To the family of Mary Murphy (little Cat) may the GOD of all comfort give the family a measure of peace in this time of great sorrow, the Bible at Luke 23:43 says there will come a time when all in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out to a paradise earth.
