“ Maxine Jackson is and always will be a beautiful person, inside and out, sharing her love with her family and sorority sisters. I met Maxine through Toni. She instantly shared with me her kindness and her love for Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.. Maxine had a great knowledge of Delta, her wisdom was incomparable. She was a very giving person, giving of love, Delta knowledge, gifts. Sorors who met Maxine could not walk away and not know our history. Maxine shared of herself until physically she could share no more. To a Soror who will forever be missed. We love you, Maxine! We are forever grateful to have known you! We will miss you!

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Jackson at my brother-in-law James Medley and wife family gatherings on several occasions Thanksgiving, Christmas, and cookouts. Mrs. Jackson's and I had many pleasant and enjoyable conversations of our computer engineering background. Mrs. Jackson computer knowledge was simply amazing after many years of retirement. I looked forward to seeing Mrs. Jackson at every event and was always greeted with hugs, so at this time my memories will last forever, and my thoughts and prayers go out to Dwayne and family.

“ Sincere condolences to the family.

Soror Maxine Jackson's smile (that great big 'ol smile), grace (one classy lady), and funny stories will be missed. I've only known her for the past 12 years, but my, oh, my....her stories about Delta history, Shaw University (her BELOVED alma mater), and North Carolina will live on. I will miss her at the annual Delta Housing Corporation dinner. I will miss her at almost ALL DC Delta events. I will miss her laughter. I will miss her light.

I thank Toni White-Richardson for her dedication and love to Soror Jackson over the years. Toni went above and beyond and really showed daughters like me how to care for mother-figures in their sunset years.

Rest well, my dear Soror Jackson, rest well.

“ Our Prayers and deepest sympathy go out to the Jackson Family. As a child I grew up with the Jackson's and learned a lot from both Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Later in life my family still enjoyed making memories with the Jackson's. Now she's enjoying a well earned place of rest. The Medley Family

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends. Maxine was truly a cherish members of the Shaw University family. I will miss seeing her at some of our alumni events or her calling me over to give me some guidance/recomendations on how to handle "Shaw Business". I truly loved her smile, grace and humor. My favorite memory that I will always cherish is when I was running around during one of the homecoming tailgates looking for her and an hour later finding her hanging out with some of the younger alumni in their tent enjoying some good old hip/hop music. We have lost a true Shaw Bear, but have gain another angel that will continuously watch over us.

“ Maxine was a wonderful person! She always had a friendly disposition and an outgoing personality. At the Reeder's Family Reunions she was always involved and in the center of things. She was a loving daughter to her mom, husband and son! She loved all of her family and was very outgoing! She loved to travel and did that often with her family!!! She really had a special place in Jimmy's heart and he truly respected her! I loved coming to the Reeder's Family Reunion Just to listen to her husband Ralph talk and tease and joke with everyone including Jimmy's dad! This is a hard time for me because I lost my mom in April of this year!!! So sorry for your loss Duane!!! You were blessed like me to have a mom that was not just your mom which is enough to say, with respect to endearment, but your mom like my mom was my best friend!!

“ From the moment I first met Maxine, we formed an instant bond. It was not solely because her husband like I was an Omega, nor was it solely because she was a Delta. It was a bond of kinship like a mother to son. And like a mother every time she saw me, she glowed and embraced me. And like a son, I glowed and embraced her. Even in her most-recent years of memory challenges, when she saw me, she always said my name, glowed, and embraced me. She will be truly missed. Be at rest, Maxine, until we can embrace each other once again.

“ When I was initiated in WDCAC in 1993, there were three women that I looked up too. Maxine was one of them. She was light that shined. She help me and my line sister get through some of the Delta activities with ease. I will always be grateful to this fine Delta lady. May she Rest in Peace.

“ My deepest sympathy to Duane, Nicholas and Toni on the passing of Ms. Jackson. I fell in love with Ms. Jackson years ago when her mother, Ms. Hoover was a participant at the Genevieve N. Johnson Senior Program. Ms. Jackson like her mother was a sweetheart. She was my to go to person when we got stuck on a trivia question. She was very knowledgeable and helpful. I will miss her so much. However, I know she is in God's hands and with her husband and mother.
