

Ms. Melvern Cecelia Washington

August 8, 1946 - September 28, 2022

Melvern Cecelia Washington affectionately known as "Tootie" transitioned on Wednesday September 28, 2022, in Holy Cross Hospital. She was the third child born to the late Thomas and Margaret Washington.

Melvern was educated in the district of Columbia public school system. She also attended Martha Washington where she received her LPN license and went to work in the medical field for over 40 years of her life. One of the joys of her life was the birth of her son Marc who preceded her in death.

Melvern was preceded in death by her son Marc Washington and three brothers Thomas "Dumpy" Washington Jr., Paul and Kevin Dyer.

She leaves to cherish her memories, six sisters Mary "Winkie" Dorsey-Washington, Patricia Washington, Deborah Henderson, Pamela Mayfield, Paula and Darlene Dyer. Three brothers, Alan Washington, Brett and Donell Dyer. Two grandchildren, Marc Carter and Markela Izlar. One uncle and aunt Joseph and Terry Washington, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ *Mel and I shared Marc Carter as our grandson.
She would always take him on the weekends as a baby. We shared caring for him.
She was a caring person. I enjoyed the few times we shared together.
I can never forget you.*
