“ Melvin Rich and I were good friends in our teens. We both attended Hoffman Boston middle school and Armstrong high school on Washington, DC. We both We call to serve our country during the North Korean conflict, Melvin served in the US Army, I in the US Airforce. It was my good fortune recently to visit Melvin and contacted another HB class mate to join in with a visit. Unfortunately our delay caused us to miss an opportunity have a farewell visit. My regards to the family, and God be with all of you.
