

Milford Haven Boyd

October 1, 1949 - August 26, 2017

Milford Haven Boyd was born on October 1, 1949 in Washington, D.C. As God would have it, he was the only child born to the late Shirley J. Boyd.

On Saturday, August 26, 2017, Milford departed this life peacefully after a short battle with cancer. Milford received his education from the D.C. Public School system. He went on to work for the Department of Public Works and after years of dedicated service he finally decided to retire March 31, 2008. But even after many years of working, Milford was not ready sit down and keep still.

After retirement, Milford kept busy by doing odds and ends for family and friends. Whether cutting their grass or working on their vehicles, he could always be found doing something.

Milford was a member of The Black Knights Van/MC Club of Southern M.D. where he would take road trips and participate in benefit events to help others. He always enjoyed riding his bike and working on motorcycles with friends. Prior to his illness, Milford would help anyone that needed a helping hand.

He leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Angela Boyd; one son, Eric Boyd; two step kids Michael Gibson and Cynnamon Gayden; eleven grandkids, Ashley Cooks (Terrez), Andre Doyley, Derrick Kelson, Eric Kelson, Andrea Dooley, Diamond Kelson, Trevon Boyd, Anthony Boyd, Kaden Terrell; four step grandkids Michael Jr, Makayla and Nathan Gibson, and Tyrone Kelson; great grandson Terrez Cooks Jr. The Smith family, and a host of relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by his grandkids Trevon and Tavon Kelson.

“ I remember how you would always come over my house with my uncle Lewis. You would always talk about how you were painting something on your bike. You painted my room and even though the paint is chipping we don't want to erase your work of art. You are TRULY MISSED!!!

“ My memory is how proud Boyd was when he would paint his motorcycle and get it just right for the 100th time. He would smile and I say " I got it this time" It was an honor to know Boyd for twelve 12 years and he will truly be missed. My deepest condolences to the family.

Words alone can't express the sadness that close to me and my family. The feeling for the passing of your father. My mother took Milford as her son and a brother to me and Eugene. He Feed my mother well she was sick and I was at work he is a great man and truly be missed. Eugene and I truly love and miss him. He always cry, He wanted to hear from his real mother and now he gets to see her again. I have so much to say. But Milford Boyd will truly be miss. May you find comfort in knowing that he have friends to support you at this time of sadness. With sympathy
