“ Leo and Morrell Roper lived across the street from us when our son Eric, and their grandson, Anthony were small. Eric and Anthony were best friends, consequently we saw quite a bit of Anthony. He became and still is, like our third son. Through Anthony, we got to know Leo and Morrell pretty well. I remember mostly the times we had, me and Leo, when we took the kids paint balling...good times and even better memories. Morrell was a nice lady, who always had kind words for me every time we spoke. She will be greatly missed. For those members of the Roper family she leaves behind, Leo, Crystal, Patrice, Anthony, and all other family members who are not listed here, please accept from the Smallwood Family, our deepest condolences, and sincere heartfelt sympathy.
