“ Nadine was truly one of a kind. I had the honor of being on her last team under her supervision. Nadine was the definition of team spirit—she believed in all of us and in the work we did. She was a true professional and an exceptional leader who uplifted those around her with trust and encouragement.

She used to call me her gem—a nickname that meant the world to me and speaks to how she saw the unique value in each of us. In every meeting, she would proudly show off her team because she genuinely believed in us and our potential.

Her passing deeply affected us all. She will forever be missed and remembered.

*Sending prayers and peace to her family.
May you rest in eternal peace, Nadine.*

“ I am a co-worker at FEMA. From the time that I first heard her boisterous voice in 2004, Nadine was a whirlwind and a personal inspiration. She exuded confidence. And this is something I lacked. We spoke many times over the 20 years that I knew her, sometimes at great length, about how you just have to pull them bootstraps up. She encouraged me in my work and egged me on to do more, sometimes with a joke or a look followed up with a whisper that if nobody else is pulling ya, I am. Her example helped me in my entire self and life- work life, personal life, thought life. I love Nadine, I love her spirit and her spunk. I love her voice and the way she was going to make sure that somebody heard her, regardless of anything. If she wasn't loud enough to be heard in the back of the room without a mic, you better know that her voice and her message was going to reach everyone, loud and clear! Her liveliness is missed. Her light is missed. Her stimulation is missed. I give my condolences and offer my love in comfort for the family and those who experienced her and those who were blessed by her reach.

“ Nay, I'm still in disbelief as I write this as I'm just waiting for you to ask me to pick up your Extra Sweet Iced Teas when I take my walk. But that's just ONE thing I'll miss. I'm going to miss hearing your voice before seeing your face, your laugh, the funny comment needed on a bad day, the help you never mind giving, the daily challenges just because we love each other, I'm going to miss my friend/my FEMA family of over 20 years. Keeping making them laugh, keep leading and keep loving Nay. Will forver miss your spirit and energy.

“Losing a friend like Nadine is something I still can’t fully put into words. We weren’t just co-worker- we shared countless laughs, long talk, quit support on hard days, and so many small moments that made the daily grind feel like something more. Nadine had a way of making everyone feel seen, understood, and appreciated, and those memories- those everyday acts of kindness, humor, and strength- are what I hold onto now.

The office feels different without Nadine, quieter somehow, but I carry their memory with me in everything from the way I work to the way I treat others. I was lucky to know them- not just as colleague, but t as true friend”. My condolences to the family and family. RIP.

“ To the family of Nadine, and FEMA family:

I am heartbroken to hear of your passing. It has been hard not to hear your voice or see your warm smile to greet us. I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude for the wisdom you shared, the encouragement you offered, and the laughter you brought into my life and the lives of others during our times of need. Meeting you at FEMA twenty years ago was a true blessing, and you truly shone in that environment. Words cannot fully convey how extraordinary you were at FEMA. I will miss you dearly, Guardian Angel Nadine.

Family you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

Angela Frazier

“ To the family of Nadine, and the FEMA Family, I offer my condolences for the loss of such a vibrant person as Nadine. It was shocking to hear of such a lively person leaving us in the prime of her life. My memories of Nadine span back to the early 2000’s at FEMA when things were different. I often picked her up in the morning on my way to work, when we were both somewhat new. She was always energetic and, yes, her smile and husky voice was infectious. She was a hard, eager, knowledgeable worker, who didn’t mind sharing her skills with others. She was born to ‘do’ FEMA and everyone knows it. Gone too soon for us, but she was here for a purpose. “Well done My faithful servant,” the Lord might say. May the Lord mend your broken hearts so that you will smile again as you cherish the memories she gave you.... in Jesus’ name. Amen
