“ My most memorable experience is that we attended Providence Baptist Church in Washington. Mrs Clark always had a beautiful smile to greet you. Mrs Alice Taylor and myself enjoyed our conversations over the phone. She will be missed. Cynthia Williams.

“ Aunt Nettie, as I called her, called my mom -HELEN THOMAS her sis, and my mom still refers to her as SIS, soo - I called her Aunt Nettie ALWAYS, never Ms. Clark. We talked on the phone bi-monthly (sometimes monthly), birthdays, phone calls remembering her son as well as my son, and exchanged Christmas Cards up until 2021. I sent her a card, however - I didn't receive one from her, I was very concerned. I called, and called - no phone connection. I'm going to miss her terribly, she was truly my mom's sister from the heart. My soon to be 98 years young, mom is now in a nursing facility now, I don't think I can muster up enough courage to tell her her sis has been called by our GOD. I love ❤️ you Aunt Nettie, RIP. Niece, Alfreda Thomas
