“ They say friends are the family we choose. I thank GOD, Olive Anderson, chose me to be her friend. I met Olive at Blue Cross & Blue Shield. We became good friends and worked together for many years. Olive was a very sweet, humble, caring and loyal friend. We lost connection for a long while, but thanks be to GOD....HE reconnected us about three years ago. Those missing years just disappeared. We would call to checkup on one another often. Our conversations were always about family. Olive loved her family dearly. I already miss my sweet friend. I thank GOD for the time we did had together which was PRICELESS. May GOD continue to bless and comfort each of you in JESUS NAME.

“ To the Anderson and Ferguson Family,

I Cor. 13 is a passage Olive and I discussed twice during her lifetime. I loved her and love you all dearly. May God continue to bless and keep you, may you remember the journey with love, patience, and perseverance veiled with the Grace of God. Olive transcended a rich Jamaican cultural presence that will truly be missed and so will our Sunday phone calls...

1 Cor. 13

13 If I speak in the tongues[a] of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast,[b] but do not have love, I gain nothing. 4 Love is patient, love is kind....7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. 8 Love never fails.

As Delvin would often say,

'One Love...'
