“ *Cynthia and family, We are deeply saddened by the passing of Oliver. We have shared many wonderful times with both of you. We pray that you will lend on the Lord for the strength that you will need in the days to come. Oliver has always been a loving friend to us. He will be missed. We love you. You are in our prayers. Love and blessings,

“ *Cynthia,
I am praying that you rely on God's strength and comfort to see you through. I have only fond memories of Oliver. I am forever grateful for him blessing me through one of his many gifts, photography. He unselfishly documented my 50th birthday party with captivating and memorable pictures of a significant time in my life. I know that God welcomed him with open arms , rescued him from a body that could no longer hold his great spirit. Love you.

“ Dear Cynthia and family,

While our hearts are heavy with sadness, we know Oliver fought the good fight and now is at peace. He was my treasured friend and among his fellow survivors in our support group, he was an inspiration. He was a generous man, a faithful volunteer and a loyal supporter of services to crime victims and their families. May god comfort you with cherished memories of love and laughter.

Peace and love, Roberta Roper

“ Cynthia and Family,
My love and sympathy are with you. As you move forward may the memories you hold dear keep Oliver close to your heart.
My fondest memories of Oliver are his smile, generosity, love of photography and dedication in keeping the "Ashton Family Reunions" alive through videos.
