“ I want to extend my deepest condolences to Olivia's family and friends. Olivia (Oliver as I lovingly called her) was a dear, dear, friend. We've been through the best of good times and some really difficult bad times, but through it all, we always had each others back. No matter what was going on, Oliver always held her head high, had the biggest, brightest, smile on her face, and a soul and spirit that radiated love and happiness. And no matter what she faced, never complained. I just want to thank you, Oliver, for all of the fun, the friendship, and the love you brought into my life. I've never met a woman or friend with as much class and grace as you have. Thank you for treating me like family. You are the big sister I never had, but dreamed of. I will celebrate your life everyday. It was an honor having you in my life. It was an honor just knowing you. Everything else was a blessing. So, you rest now and when we see each other again, we'll continue with the fun. I'll even song a song with you like we used to. I love you so very, very, much.

“ To the Jones family.

Our heart felt prayers are with you all. At times like these we have to declare the Word of God that He will never leave us nor forsake us, so look to Jesus who gives us comfort and peace that surpasses all human knowledge.

We are keeping you lifted and covered by the blood of Jesus during this time of sadness.

“ My condolences to the family members of Olivia (Libby). Libby left a good impression with me about her family. She is a family woman. She now has her wings and is sailing high to meet those who have gone before her. Thank you for the love you shared with my grandson, Karson. You will not be forgotten. Your photo will be placed in his baby book for keep sake. My thought's and prayers, Brenda Wilson
