

MRS ORIS WINSLOW- DUKES

February 28, 1943 - August 1, 2022

Oris Winslow-Dukes of Capitol Heights, Maryland departed this life on Monday, August 1, 2022, at her residence. Oris was the daughter of the late Joseph and Mildred Frazier. She was born and raised in Washington, DC. She attended D.C. Public Schools, where she graduated from Margaret Murray Washington Vocational High School in 1960. After high school, Oris married her high school sweetheart Edward Winslow, and together they had six children. They later divorced and remained friends who were devoted to raising their children. Oris met her soulmate Cline Dukes and married him on August 21, 1993.

Oris worked at Greater Southeast Hospital in Accounts Payable providing excellent customer service to all who met her. She retired after 32 years of service. A few years after retirement, she returned to work at Washington Senior Wellness Center, Washington, DC in the Accounting Department. She loved going to work at the center and participated in trips and activities sponsored for the seniors. She retired after eight years. She enjoyed her retirement years sitting on her stoop listening to music and enjoying the kids in the neighborhood. One of her favorite things to do was going to the grocery store where she had a personal relationship with the butcher and baker. If you stopped by her house to visit, she would ask for a ride to the store (even if she just came back from the store).

Oris was a true believer of God throughout her life. She attended Ebenezer AME Church. She later became a member of Lincoln Park United Methodist Church.

Oris adored her family and friends, but most of all her grandchildren held a special place in her heart. In the 80's she joined a social group called the Fun Bunch. The group traveled, vacationed, partied, and attended the Hampton Jazz Festival yearly. They also sponsored bus trips to Atlantic City and Deep Creek. She also enjoyed music and dancing. She would throw the most outrageous Parties. Every Sunday at either 1 or 4 pm was one of her favorite times (watching the Redskins). Oris also enjoyed a good game of pinochle and bid whist with friends and family.

Oris was preceded in death by her son Dwayne 'Lovell' Winslow and her husband Cline Duke. She leaves to cherish her fond memory her devoted children, Edward Jr. (Tracey), Carlton (Eunice), Keith, Tammy, Robin Winslow, and a special niece Andrea Burton. Oris leaves behind a devoted sister Sharon Burton. Also, survived by six grandchildren Chisa (Godfrey), Donte, Dwayne, Damara, Erica, Keith Jr., and four step grandchildren Willie, Christopher, Larry Jr., Lamont (Flomeeka); nine great grandchildren Narie, Ava, Sean, Caleb, Kyla, Dasha, Jael, Jude, and Bella. And five step great grandchildren Autumn, Cynthia, King, Lance, Taliyah, Khyrell, Cortez, Santrice, Sariah, Lilianna and, Kamori. She also leaves to cherish her longtime best friend Gwendolyn Young.
