“ He did some bad things in Texas. He hurt innocent people and caused innocent individuals much loss of income. He was not a good man in his younger years.

“ I remember so long ago that Sundays were the day you would call family. I remember when you sneezed you said "wellawella" afterward and that was funny. I remember over 20 years ago when your older kids were young you lamented not seeing them more and when you spoke about them the light filled your eyes and your love for them was clear. I'm saddened that Ella doesn't know that look personally. She knew that even though being there was hard for you, your children always held a place in your heart. Rest in peace, Sullay.
