“ In my view, Pam was the heart of Criminal Division. She was always so helpful, funny, and fundamentally kind. She went out of her way to make sure we had what we needed to succeed and provided an understanding ear. She was a good reality check for so many of us. Even after I left DOJ, we kept in touch - that was who Pam was. Every December her office was filled with holiday and Christmas cards from attorneys and staff who left DOJ decades ago - her impact was profound. I am so grateful to have known her.

Ralph Waldo Emerson said, it's not length of life, but depth of life. Pam touched us all so deeply.

“ Pam's name was synonymous with the DOJ Criminal Fraud Section. When I first arrived a couple of years ago, her name is one of the first names I was given as one of the "go to" persons. Pam and I exchanged email messages on a daily basis and a couple of weeks before her passing, she called me instead of emailing me to ask a question regarding my request. I guess that was her way of letting me hear her voice one more time after not being able to see our colleague for over a year due to the pandemic. I can't tell you how many times in the last two weeks that I instinctively started to type her name. I will miss her, she will be greatly miss.

To the family, earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. Blessed are they who mourn for they will be comforted, says the Lord. I pray for peace and understanding as you embark on this new normal with this great void in your lives. May the grief turn into warm memories in the coming days, months and years.

God Bless you.

“ I worked with Pam while at the Fraud Section. Whenever I went by her office, she was always ready with a smile. After I had my son, without fail, she would ask how he was doing by name! I was so sad to hear of her passing and send all the best to the family. I am very lucky to have met Pam.

“ Pam was an amazing friend. We became friends 30 years ago when we both started working in the Fraud Section. She was a listening ear, a confidant, a client, an auntie to my children and a sister from another mister. I will truly miss our talks, cries, venting sessions (lol) and her infectious smile. Until I see you again Pammy, I love ya.

“ I had the great pleasure of working closely with Pam for 3 or so years in my first job out of college. We clicked right away and shared endless laughs throughout our time together despite the sometimes very difficult work we had to do in supporting victims and witnesses. My greatest memory is being able to have Pam at my wedding - something I will always cherish. My deepest condolences to the family and friends. I will miss you greatly, Pam! ❤️

“ I was so saddened to hear of Pam's passing. She was a breath of fresh air at the Fraud Section. When I worked there as a young prosecutor, she was happy to take me under her wing. She showed me so much and was an immense benefit to the everyday work of helping victims and using her expert knowledge, compassion and incredible competence to really understand the people we worked with on all sides of the cases we handled. Since leaving the Fraud Section, she has made sure to find me (I don't even know how she did it!) each and every time I came back to the office with a client or for a holiday party and to welcome me with open arms.

Pam was a true gem as a victim/witness coordinator and, more importantly, as a person. We will miss you Pam. But I will always smile a little when I walk into the Fraud Section and think of her infectious laugh and her gentle humor in handling the most difficult people and situations. I am better for knowing you my friend.

“ I was shocked and deeply saddened to learn about the passing of your dear sweet Pamsy. I fondly called her Ms. Pamela. I met her over a year ago when she placed her first bakery order with us in Charlotte, NC. She quickly became more than a customer; she was an angel. She gave me raving reviews with every order, and I was always moved by her messages. She was thoughtful, and she always blessed me with words of encouragement along my journey as a small business owner.

Ms. Pamela, I will cherish all the words of hope and faith you shared with me. I remember our last email like it was yesterday. Thank you for love, laughs, and for inspiring me beyond measure. You will surely be missed, and I'm forever grateful that our lives crossed paths.

To the family, my love, thoughts, and prayers are with you as you mourn the loss yet celebrate the life of your amazing and beautiful spirit Pamsy.

*Yours in Sympathy
