

Patricia Louise Starks

September 3, 1966 - August 17, 2025

Patricia Louise Starks, affectionately known as "Lulu," entered eternal rest on August 17, 2025, at the age of 58. Born on September 3, 1966, in Washington, D.C., Lulu was a beloved mother, grandmother, sister, godmother, and friend whose life reflected love, generosity, and an open heart. She was preceded in death by her parents, James and Viola Goodson, and her brother, Calvin Starks.

Lulu dedicated part of her life to caring for others as a Certified Nursing Assistant with Kaiser Permanente for 10 plus years. She also served in security work, showing her versatility and commitment to providing for her family and community. Beyond her career, Lulu had a playful spirit, she enjoyed playing bingo, adored Betty Boop, and could often be found enjoying snacks and seafood.

To know Lulu was to know kindness as well to know she was very opinionated. Although she spoke her mind freely, she welcomed everyone with open arms and created a safe space for countless children in her community. In a world that was not always kind, she provided warmth, stability, and the freedom for children to simply be themselves. Her compassion and generosity left an imprint on every life she touched.

Lulu leaves behind a cherished legacy through her children: Natasha Starks, Clarence Lemons, and Brandon Lemons; her grandchildren: Maya Starks, Mariyah Richardson, Breanna Lemons, Jeremiah Hayes, Trenton Lemons, Marleigh Lemons, Logan Lemons all of Washington, DC and; her goddaughter: Ikea Goodson of Concord, NC; her siblings: DeWayne Goodson (Heike) of FL, Carkashia Withers (Daryl) of MD, Annette Hopkins of MD, and Vickie Wiley of Kannapolis, NC; two aunt Esther Thomas of Raeford, NC and Frankie McClelland of Kannapolis, NC as well as 10 nieces, 5 nephews, and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

Lulu's love, laughter, and generosity will forever be remembered by all who were blessed to know her.
