

Ms. Pauline Margaret Simpson

February 17, 1945 - March 22, 2025

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of Pauline Margaret Simpson, a cherished mother, devoted public servant, and beloved member of the Washington, D.C. community. Ms. Simpson peacefully departed this world on March 22, 2025, at the age of 80. Born on February 17, 1945, in Washington, D.C., she dedicated her life to serving others, utilizing her extensive education, including a Master's Degree, in her role as an Office Administrator for the Department of Aging.

Pauline will be remembered not only for her professional accomplishments but also for her unwavering kindness, generosity, and commitment to her family. She is survived by her son, Keith Simpson, who will honor her legacy with love and remembrance.

Funeral services will be announced at a later date.

“ Ms. Simpson was always smiling and waving anytime I passed her house, and she would holler, "he's not home" referring to OJ. She will truly be missed. Our prayers are with you Keith. Gina (Milton) and Willie Lawrence.
