“ I was just the optician who made eyeglasses for Ann and Percy, but their gentle love for one another, and their kindness toward me, spoke to my heart on the first day I met them. I knew of her illness and had the opportunity to tell her that she was a lesson in grace for me. I am so glad I had the chance to tell her. Not enough people like the Johnsons in this world.

“ Ann will be truly missed. She was a kind person with a big heart, who would help in any way she could. When visiting Ferriday, Louisiana, Ann would get in my parents (Bertha & Andrew Johnson's) kitchen, which seemed to be the family gathering place and help out preparing old fashion southern foods. Ann even learned that it seemed at times, everyone was so excited to see family that everyone seemed to be talking at the same time. Ann took time to talk to the children, ask them questions and wished them well with their school endeavors. The yearly, August, Kentwood, Louisiana Family Reunion was a highlight for Ann and all. Everyone seemed to overeat at the homage celebration. While visiting Ann & Percy in Haymarket, Virginia, Ann said I know "y'all, so I didn't cook, so let's us all get into the kitchen and start cooking whatever we all want. Therefore, the talking and cooking southern foods began. Sister-in-law, Roxanna Johnson, 210-274-1063
