“ To Vanessa and Family It's with sadness in my heart to hear of my buddy from back in the day passing. Along with the sadness there are many memories of sitting around and playing cards, board games and just hanging out with Ralph and my cool cousins at my aunt's house on Friday nights. Thanks to Ralph and my cuz for teaching me how to play cards. I am not sure if learning how to play was a good thing or not. Our nights were filled with laughter, watching tv and talking smack. It was Ralph's family who my sister and I became friends with when we first arrived in DC back in the 70's. Since that time we all have gone our separate ways living life. I will never forget how kind and mild mannered Ralph was to the young ladies around him. He would sometimes walked down to the 51 Club and bring back those good old sandwiches. One thing I can say about him too was it seems that he always had money on him... I know he was kind hearted to me and my sister. Over the years we became to know his whole family because my late aunt and his late mother were friends and lived in the same building. I send my condolences to you and the family. May the God of all comfort surround you and the family with His presence and give you peace. Ralph, thank you for your kindness and generosity. Thank you for being our friend no strings attached... Rest in peace.

A Buddy from back in the Day
