“ To the Family & Michelle: I had the pleasure of meeting Randy & Michelle together a week prior to the Lord calling him home. His Spirit & the chemistry that he & Michelle shared was Special & Beautiful! Randy's smile was pleasant & lit up the room without saying a word. Although our friendship was brief, I feel as though I lost a childhood friend. RIP 🕊️ my friend, Trina Snowden

“ Uncle Randy, this is so hard to write, I just want you to know that I will always love you and I will forever and always will be your, Prin Prin. The walls from Atlantic Street to your place will forever hold a true meaning to me.

If this message duplicates, I just know I needed to say it more than once, you will forever be missed. I promise I will keep Ma in great spirits and continue to celebrate you. Closing out in your famous sound off

“ Where do I truly begin? I don't think I have settled in my mind yet with any of this... every event I'll be waiting to hear you say “ hey P-Rezzzz” ... your laugh.. your famous greeting ... after you find out there's banana pudding .. asking me to hide you some although you already tried to eat the entire pan ... no matter what you showed up and I thank you for that. You called me and said “ what you need me to do in Solomons” and I finally found the answer... I just needed you to be there. I love you. I'll see you later. Rest peacefully Unc.

“ As I'm letting the tears fall down my face, I just don't know where to begin. The reality of never hearing you say again " I LOVE YOU NIECEE-POOH, YOU GOT MY CORN PUDDING READY", breaks my heart. Your voice, your smile, that unique laugh, your hugs and that look when you're up to something. You will forever be imprinted in my mind and in my heart. I promise to keep your candle lit while I'm here on this earth.

“ I don't even know where to start 😭, I'm gonna miss you so much uncle Randy! I just keep hearing your voice in my head. I'm still in disbelief that you're no longer down here with us but now above with god watching over us. He gained a real one, I know you got him up there laughing. I remember when I was little and we went to Georgia to visit aunt sandy you was in that seat tearing it up with them snores lol. You could always light up the room whenever you walked into it and you made my heart smile when I talked to you after my car accident when I was at a low. Until we meet again I'll miss you, love you uncle Randy 💙

“ I was around Randy and his twin sister a lot as I spent the summer with his family in the late 1960s. I sometimes had the pleasure of helping to baby-sit the two. I remember him being the cutest, sometimes fussy child, who would often say things that you just had to laugh at. His family had a large, positive influence on my life, and I believe his mother and I share the same birthday (March 22).

Unfortunately, I didn't get to see or talk to him during his teenage years, and most of his adult years. If not mistaken, I last saw him briefly between 2014 and 2019 at my mom's house. He had grown to be a handsome young man who greeted me politely with a warm smile. He appeared to be very happy to be among all of his family members. I will always remember the Randy that I knew, and I wish that I had gotten to know him better. May God bless you with restful peace Randy.

*My deepest sympathy to the family.

“ I just need to hear you say APRIL FOOL! Just one more time because I can't wake myself up from this bad dream. I've been hearing your voice every morning say "Hey my Mookie Mook!" or how we use to sing our special song "my mookie mook, mook mook! You would ALWAYS remind me that I'm your favorite niece. I'm going to miss so so much. My children will miss you grabbing them up for a hug, or you laughing at Monte about you knowing how crazy your niece is. Now I can't imagine a family gathering without you or you not being there to support my kids sports events. You was ALWAYS there for me and my kids and this doesn't feel real to us. I love you Big Dog (loud bark) 💔💙

“ For 56yrs I got to love you lil brother and everytime I saw or talked to you we always ended our conversation with those words. The last time I saw you we took this picture as I left your house. I have a million happy memories running thru my head right now. One day we will see each other again and laugh about them as we often did. Having you as my brother has been a blessing. Just know I'm still waiting for you to come thru my door and wake me from this terrible dream. Life without you will never be the same. I can still hear you walking thru my door yelling 🗣️HEY RU and we laugh about our incredible journey. You are never far from my thoughts and always in my heart. Loving you always my big little brother. Tell Mom and Dad I'm gonna get thru this. Rest in eternal peace 💙💔❤️☐🕊️🌹

I remember you being in your moms womb, it was double trouble but then the next time I saw you as a man. Your family was bonded in love which is a great gift. You will be greatly missed, they had you 56 yrs and the first to depart. God's grace kept you and your spirit will always be in their hearts,

“ To my Love and my Best friend:
I Love you with All my heart.
There are no words to express how I feel.
I miss you and will cherish those special times that we spent.
And although I can't hold you, laugh with you or talk to you. You are forever in my heart and in my memories. I know you are at peace and in the presence of GOD, our heavenly father. And I know you will be watching out for me. I will just say bye for now. I Love You!
