Rebecca married Charles Leo Diggs (Sonny) on June 20, 1953 and was married to the love of her life for 42 wonderful years before his passing on March 26, 1995. From this union Rebecca was blessed with one son Gregory Leo Diggs and one bonus son Jerome Lewis who both preceded her in death.

Rebecca loved her church family and was a lifelong faithful member of Westphalia United Methodist Church, now known as Westphalia Christian Community Church for many, many, years until her failing health. Rebecca worshipped as a young adult at the original Jackson UMC located on Marlboro

Pike and remained faithful after the move to Westphalia Road and renaming to Westphalia UMC and then later moving to D'Arcy Road.

As an active member and faithful servant, Rebecca sang in the Althea Perry Women's Choir, and served on the Westphalia United Methodist Woman's Social Group and Senior Club where she assisted in planning senior trips for her church family and visits to the sick and shut in members.

Rebecca is the last surviving member of her immediate family. Her husband, Charles (Sonny), sons Gregory and Jerome, siblings, Thomas, Chester, Berlyn, Pinkney, Carl, Levi, Tillman and twin sister Rachel all preceded her in death.

Rebecca is at peace now but will live on in the hearts of her remaining family, grandchildren; Antonio White, Sr. (Erica), Selena and Gregory Leo Dawson, Emmanuel and Margaret Lewis, great-grandchildren; Cortez, Ma'Keya and Kali'ah Dawson, Kortiney, Laci, and Antonio White II (deceased), a devoted niece and sidekick Victoria Sutton, who lovingly cared for her in her sunset years until her death and a host of other close relatives and many dear friends.
