Reco, you will truly be missed, your infectious smile was contagious. It was hard not to laugh, while in your company because you were always so funny. We had The best times growing up, together around Millwood. The angles, will have a ball around you. Stay fly, and fly high.

Love Always, your childhood friend Tequillia

I've watched this video twice and I pray to the Most High God to continue to comfort, protect and keep my cousins and Reco's friends/loved ones while he is separated from them. I feel at peace knowing that the creator of all things saw that it was fit to allow him to rest in His peace that surpasses all understanding. Be at peace Reco- you are loved and will be missed.

Reco, I didn't know watching this 2 years later would have the same effect on me as it did that day. I wish you were still here with us you'd be so proud of me and I would've loved for you to meet my baby girl I'm sure y'all would've been the best of friends. Anyway I want to thank you for playing such a major role in my childhood I loved spending time with you, you gave me the sense of security always and you kept me laughing. Forever a positive role model in my eyes I wish I could've told you this before it was too late, but I am grateful to have ever met you let alone have you as my big cousin.

*I love you and you are truly missed
Tell Nana and Cory I miss them too..*

*Love,

Reco...Reco...Reco... still to today this is a life battle to stay focused and continue to push! What's really crazy is you always said that you couldn't see yourself as a old man. I remember having this conversation with you quite a few times..saying don't say that. You were right ! When a mother lose a child, it's a feeling that never heals or go away. I've had a lot of restless days and nights alone asking God to help me as he's the only one that can soften that kinda pain! Life is very different without you here with me.. your brothers don't ride/hang with me like you did. I so..miss you son like no one would ever know. You will always be in my heart ❤️. You mother..aka Kris Jenner. Tell we meet again. R.I.P son..
