“ My sympathies to the family and many, many friends of Reggie. He was a wonderful presence on Capitol Hill. As a staffer at Ways and Means, he was the glue that kept order at a sometimes unruly Committee. He was a lovely man.

“ Reggie - you will be sorely missed. I have fond memories of our family reunion visit in 2009. You gave the grandkids and us a tour of the State Capitol. The husky sound of your kind voice will be forever etched in my mind. Love you - sister-in-law Andrea Budd

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends. May you rely on our loving Heavenly Father who supplies us with the comfort we need. May Isaiah 26:19 provide you with comfort.

Isaiah 26:19 reads, “Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life.”

“ So Sorry to learn of Reggie's passing. I worked for various members of the Committee on Ways and Means and then for the Committee itself -- all during Reggie's tenure. He always kept us straight. In fact, as a young staffer, I will admit being afraid of him. But, that was all bluster -- he was a wonderful human being who loved his job and helped take care of those around him. And, boy did he have stories! He will be missed.

“ My name is Gwen McFadden and I had the pleasure of working with Reggie on Capitol Hill. I am so sorry to hear of his passing and words cannot even express my sorrow. Please accept my deepest condolences for your family's loss----REGGIE WAS INDEED A FRIEND! He will be missed. May God continue to bless the family during this time and in the days ahead. With deepest sympathy--
