“ Please accept this brief but heartfelt expression of my sympathy on the passing of your dad. I am so very sorry. I pray that his cherished memories will bring comfort to you at all times. From my interaction with you in the store, I know your father was a great dad and I can only imagine how much he loved you all, especially the grandchildren. I know your kids must be very sad as well. I pray that you will have the strength you need to get through this very difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your wonderful family.
