“ Robert grew up in a loving community where families were very close and supportive. I remember his Mom anticipating his arrival. He was her second son. Growing up he adored his big brother. He was gentle, respectful and a kind person. One cannot forget how he loved to dress for he was very stylish. Robert (Pee Wee) as we called him will truly be missed, but I feel blessed to have known him and watch him become an adult. We must remember that this is not our permanent home but a stopping place along the way. Today, Pee Wee is in Paradise. I will continue to pray for his family.

We talked about our careers, the fun we had together, and how we lifted each other. We discussed retirement, and you kept saying, "but one thing." Was this it?

A real gentleman. Kind, earnest, dedicated, meticulous, and so much more. I'm certain he received a warm welcome home.
