

Ms. Robin Quincy Harris

February 27, 1961 - March 6, 2021

Robin Quincy Harris was preceded in death by her loving parents, Roscoe Howard and Dorothy Mae Drummond, and three siblings, Darlene A. Bland, Rodney Q. Drummond and James E. Drummond, who departed this life on January 21, 2021.

From a young child to adulthood, Robin attended Holy Cross P.S. Church in District Heights, Maryland where her spiritual growth began and progressed for many years. Later in life, her spiritual growth was further developed at New Image of Community Baptist Church where she attended as a devout member.

Robin was educated in the District of Columbia and Prince George's County Public School systems. She attended Bowie State College for a brief period before deciding on a different path. Robin worked a variety of jobs during her lifetime, starting with the food service industry as a line cook to chef to child care, youth counselor and care giver to adults with special needs.

Robin was a kind hearted person who was loved by everyone that knew her. She was a caring and doting mother to her children, big sister to her siblings and loving aunt to many nieces and nephews. She enjoyed coloring books, painting animated characters, crossword puzzles and watching movies of all sorts. Her years in the food industry made her a great cook who on many occasions would prepare Sunday dinners for the entire family. Each meal would end with a home-baked cake or pie.

She leaves to cherish her memories, two daughters, India and Gerri Harris; three adopted sons, John Harris, Sylvester Harris and Steven Harris; niece Dee Dee A. Drummond whom she raised as her daughter; one brother, William A. Bland; two sisters, Alma A. Broady and Donie D. Drummond; three aunts, Quincy W. Gaines of Neeses, South Carolina, Ethel D. Whitmore of Washington, D.C. and Dr. Lorene K. Robinson of Dover, Delaware; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, notably Cordella Gillespie.

“ My condolences to the family of my sister-in-Christ, friend. We attended and worshipped at New Image together. Robin was a jewel who was very sweet and kind. I will definitely miss our conversations. But now, she is now with our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ. Love you forever Sister Robin until we meet again

I will ALWAYS and FOREVER LOVE you my sister !! You will NEVER be forgotten, I promise you that sis. I will miss our talks, walks at the track,, shopping and the gym together. I am so glad I was able to talk with you before the Lord decided to take you home. I am so sorry I didn't get a chance to come when you invited me to see your new place. I was looking forward to everything that we had planned for this summer. I'm glad my last words to you was, I LOVE YOU !!! My heart and prayers goes out to the family. May your beautiful, blessed soul rest in our heavenly father's arms until we meet again my sister. I LOVE you, ALWAYS !!!!
