SUBJECT: Letter of Condolence

TO: The Roger Sinclair Family & Friends

Dear Sasha & The Sinclair Family and Friends;

On April 23, 2016, the members of the Gill's Family, were heavy-heartedened, when we received the news that your Grandfather, Mr. Roger Sinclair, had journeyed on to that mansion not made by hands. It is difficult to find words to comfort someone during the time of the loss of a Grandfather and Friend! However, we extend our profoundest and most heartfelt sympathy, to Sinclair's Family and Friends during the time of your bereavement. If we can be of any assistance during this difficult time, please do not consider it an imposition to call on us, we are here and we are ready to aid and assist you, in any manner possible. We are as near as the nearest phone, please do not hesitate to use it.

Our prayers are forever with the Sinclair's Family and Friends. Please find consolation in these words. We believe that upon Brother Roger's arrival, he was received by the Heavenly Host, and the Angels rejoiced upon his arrival. Today, we say to you, let go and let God. Brother Roger is now resting in that place where "the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest." He is that place, where "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."

*God Bless you Sasha, family and friends! Let us go forward,
"Holding on to God's Unchanging Hands," knowing that we will see hin again, "When We Reach That Other Shore!"*

With Much Love,

Your Old Church Dad

Reverend Dr. Curtis O. Gill & Deaconess Mary E. Gill
