“ I worked with Ron on the Police Department at Mason Station. He was a super person and a kind man. I will cherish our talks which were many sitting in his area 430/460. I will never forget the night we were called to a report of a man trying to tear the ATM out of the wall. This man was having a flashback from Vietnam which we later learned. Ron spoke calmly to this man enough so that we were able to get him onto a stretcher headed to the hospital. Ron was one of the Greats in my eyes. Rest In Peace brother. Sending love to all his family. Terri Doyle sister in blue
