“ Ronnie (aka Breeze), Allan (aka Diamonds) and I were like 3 peas in a pod during our later high school, college and young adulthood years. The three of us graduated from OLQP grade school and were always up to something, usually “no good”, definitely stories that’ll never be told and we can laugh about when we meet up in heaven. — We drifted apart once we started having kids and significant time passed since we saw or spoke to each other. Recently, however, our long friendship was rekindled after Ronnie’s brother Billy passed away. We had some good talks reminiscing about the good times we shared together.

I will miss him greatly. May he rest in eternal peace. See you on the other side.
