“ My other big sister a true earthly Angel precious as a diamond beautiful, as a Rose. Such a gracious and sincere soldier in GOD'S Army. I remember Rosa spending time nurturing not only her children but so many others in Little Flock and outside of church. Days of fun in my family home growing up choir rehearsals in our house church outings family outings shopping birthday parties with our kids. So glad GOD BLESSED me and my family to know you and bond us like family. You gain your wings and I know you are resting in the bosom of CHRIST JESUS By FAITH! I know I will see you again rest in PARADISE until we meet at JESUS feet. Praying for your girls your grandchildren and your family. Love you ❤️💋

“ I met Rosa when I first started working at the Kennedy Center in 1996. Rosa was one of the dearest, sweetest people I ever knew. She became my dear friend and I loved her dearly. She had a light and a smile about her, she didn't complain though you sensed the work situation wasn't good or she may be in pain. Rosa was never one to take advantage yet when I saw incidents where she needed to rest, that's when I tried stepped in to help.

Rosa's faith was amazing. She was also a GENTLE spirit, maybe that's why I loved her so. She loved her girls and I know she was so proud of them every time Rosa would speak about them.

Rosa, I will miss you and your ever loving bear bugs. I know you're in a better place, dancing with the Lord.

*Love and peace to you always my friend.

“ I always loved seeing Rose at the Kennedy Center where I worked. She was always happy and her big smile brightened my day so much. Rose inspired me to try to always see the bright side of life. She and I shared that we started working there the same year (1978) and that she was thinking of retiring this year. I think she was aptly named Rose 🌹 and touched everyone's heart who knew her. To her family; I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I'm so sorry to hear that Rose passed away, she will be missed! My condolences to the family for your great loss. She was a lovely person, with a stunning, warm smile. We often stopped to talk at work and she had an infectious positive attitude and a great sense of humor. I hope that your memories will be a comfort during this time.
