“ I did not know Mrs. Ward, but know her beautiful daughter Deborah who shared with me about her mother's illness. Mrs. Ward was always in my prayers as I frequently called Deborah to check on her.

My prayers of comfort and peace to the Ward family as you grieve the loss of your loved one. And Gods presence will be with you as you celebrate her life during the Home Going Service. Physically she is no longer with you, but her spirit lives forever in your hearts and your minds. Hold on and embrace the wonderful and loving memories.

God is a loving and awesome God who is ever present, who is our comforter and He is always faithful.

My sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family.

“ My condolences to the entire family. May you rely on the God of all comfort during this time. Hopefully Isaiah 26:19 can provide you with some comfort, it states, “Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life.”
