Memorial service will be held on Saturday July 15, 2017 at Pope Funeral Homes, Forestville Chapel 5538 Marlboro Pike Forestville MD 20747
Visitation:10:00 am Service:11:00 am

Rosemary Marie Blackwell was born on August 18, 1929 in Washington, DC to the late Harvey and Rose Taylor Faulkner. She went home to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Thursday, June 29th, 2017.

Rosemary graduated from Dunbar Senior High School in Washington, DC in 1948 as Valedictorian and attended the District of Columbia Teacher's College from 1948-1950. She later married the late James Edward Blackwell and from this union she had three children.

Rosemary worked at the Department of Commerce (Bureau of Census) in various capacities until her retirement in June 1981 as a Supervisory Tape Librarian. She was responsible for assisting coordinators and sponsors in resolving issues during computer processing, while also training aides in the process of staging and de-staging.

After retirement, Rosemary worked for Manpower Temporary Agency in Washington, DC from 1985-1987, the Triangle Council of Governments in Raleigh, North Carolina and as a Senior Aide for SOME (So Others May Eat) from 2002 – 2004.

Rosemary's greatest gift was her unselfish giving of herself to her family and friends and to any who had a need. She enjoyed traveling, telling stories, and eating good food.

She leaves to cherish her memories her children: Rosemary C. Blackwell, Debra P. Blackwell, James E. Blackwell, Jr.; grandchildren: Cynthia Russell, Audrey Blackwell, Charity Blackwell, Joshua Blackwell, Keshell Coleman, Constance N. Miller; great grandchildren: Gabrielle Greene, Naomi Greene, Faith Greene, Autumn Blackwell, Isaac Russell, Danielle Russell, Johnathan Blackwell, Joseph Blackwell, Rosemary C. Brooks, Madison S. Brooks; great-great grandchild: Zion King and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I miss you, O I miss you!! Ask me how I miss you!! Every day that I awake, I miss your life and eternal grace: I miss you, O... I miss you! Ask me how I miss you! I miss our long conversations most of which resolve in 'grace,' I miss you! O, I miss you... my precious mother, I miss you!! One day, O... one day... and, not... so far away, I will see you again in the Kingdom of The Most High GOD, to live forever in the love and warmth of the Lord my Savior my GOD; where we will be "mother & daughter," the children of GOD... amen.

And, thank you, Mommy... because you believed my report, amen. I Will Always Love and miss you...

Teenie (Your daughter), in whom... the Spirit of the Most High GOD truly lives: as HIS WORD says, the Spirit of GOD is alive and well in me... amen. Sunday, April 15, 2018

“ I, dPb, daughter of Rosemary Marie Faulkner-Blackwell (the departed); sang this song on June 30, 2017 as I looked towards Heaven to Him who sits high and looks low; for the strength and peace only HE could give me, having lost my mommy the day before: (One Day At A Time)!! Amen.
