“ Dear Family and Friends of Russell Spencer Kilgore:

It is with deep and sincere sympathy that we share with you in the loss of your loved one, Russell Spencer Kilgore. What a blessing to have had him with us this long. He will be very much missed by his family, friends and acquaintances. We know that this loss is great and the memories will be in your hearts forever. We pray that the Lord will give you peace as you look over his life and your relationship with him and that his legacy will warm your hearts as you think of him.

We are very pleased that Russell was a graduate of the Joel Elias Spingarn High School in Washington, D. C. . a school that helped to develop fine students like Russell. We will keep him in our hearts and minds and are thankful for having known him.

We will pray for peace in your hearts as only God can do..
