“ My sincerest condolences to Mr. Curtis’s family, especially to you Maurice who was unfailingly friendly, courteous, and kind when we had occasion to share mutual concerns about our respective family members—for you, your father, and for me my husband of 65 years, Dick Mills. The two shared a room at Charlotte Hall for a long time. I thought the world of your father and enjoyed visiting with him. He showed a lot of spunk and was ever gracious. His departure from this life is sure to create a huge empty space in the hearts of those who loved him but with time and the good Lord’s guidance it will fill to overflowing with reverence for his life, honor for his accomplishments, and joyful memories.
