“ It is hard to fill the vacancy that our beloved MIC Samuel A. Jackson, Sr., Sam or Jack lovingly call by all who knew him, leaves however, we must realize that death enters every household and sometime we will understand our time is in His hand.

The Fraternal Family you expressed your love and concern in the spoken word, also in the doing of many acts of kindness which shall never be forgotten.

Sam's faithful service to the Fraternity, his Church, his community and Family will preserve his memory and comforting words and deeds will brighten the passing years to come.

“Death” is just the beginning of Sam's life.

Rest in Peace Beloved
