

Mr. Sean Maurice Slaughter, Sr.

November 25, 1967 - April 21, 2021

On April 21, 2021, our Heavenly Father called Sean Maurice Slaughter to His eternal home. Sean was born November 25, 1967 to Myra Williams and the late Larry Slaughter in Washington, DC. Sean was smart, highly ambitious and self-motivated. He graduated from Spingarn High School in Washington, DC and from there attended Lincoln Technical School, where he studied HVAC.

Sean worked for several companies utilizing his skills he learned at Lincoln Technical School, before landing the job at the Government Publishing Office in Washington, DC as a Pipefitter. He was a hard worker and he knew his stuff. He was a natural born leader and was always willing to learn so that he could pass on his knowledge to others.

Sean was a jokester, but he also had a serious side as well. Sean belonged to a group called "The Traveling Saints". They fed the homeless, donated clothing items, organized coat drives, and hosted cabarets. He loved traveling with his wife to Jamaica, Cancun, and Aruba. Sean also liked to grill and would often videotape himself grilling then send it to co-workers to show off his skills.

On January 15, 1999, Sean married Alita Slaughter and from this union Brianna and Sean were born. Sean loved his family very much, and a lot of his younger cousins looked up to him.

Sean leaves to cherish his memories his wife Alita; his daughter Brianna; his son, Sean; his granddaughter, Aria; his mother, Myra; his brothers, Marcus, Larry S., William, and Larry W; three sisters-in-law, Mia, Inez, and Ebony; his brother-in-law Renaud; his favorite aunt Sharon; his best friend, Darrian (Man); his mother-in-law, Audrey; many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Sean went to Elementary and Junior High with him. I had just saw Sean with Man on Hst . I was going inside a restaurant and stop and talk and laugh with the both of them . Whenever we saw each Sean, Man and I it was always laughter. That was just recently that I saw them. I couldn't believe it here one day gone the next.

“ I will never forget Sean, sitting on the roof at work. He would always tap his watch when I walked by. I was always running late. He would smile and say, you still on cp time. I will miss his infectious smile. Lita, Denise and your crew of ladies will help get you through this rough time. Jimmy and I will continue praying for you and your family.

“ Sean was the family plumber, I referred him out to friends & co-workers and he would roll up with his partner-in-crime aka front passenger seat buddy Lil Sean. The comments I received - Sean is so sweet, I said which one? LOL!! Of course, they meant papa Sean.. He was the type to know him is to love him. Most of us didn't pay him any attention until he put his foot down & was ready for gatherings to end at his house. We hurried to gather our belongings and roll out. We knew when he had enough. He will be missed! As my sons got older, he would pull them to the side and have the man talk with them. Thank you! Rest on & continue to cover your family (Lita, Bri, Lil Sea, Aria & Myra)... Let them know you're not gone, your spirit will carry on! Rest King! Much Love, Tina, Christopher & Christian Stewart

“ To the family:

We are so sorry for your loss. There are no words for such an unimaginable loss. You're in our thoughts, prayers and hearts.

We have known Sean for most of our lives. We grew up together and were friends. We went to Stuart Jr. High together and graduated from Spingarn together.

Sean and our crew (The Lipford's, Joe and Ronnie Hart, James Brown, Lil Man) and others had a lot of fun growing up together around Ludlow Taylor and Sherwood. We created memories that we still talk about today.

Sean's honesty, courage, loyalty, and silliness was infectious. He was one of our best friends. All in all Sean was just an all around good dude and we're going to miss him dearly.

We thank God for the life of Sean and the memories that he has allowed us to cherish together.

God Bless you Sean.

We love you.

“ While Uncle Rickey and I are sad beyond words that I nephew, Sean, is no longer with us, it gives me great pleasure to share a memory of him. Sean attended all family gatherings and always arrived at our house with - the love of his life - his son, Lil Sean, riding up front with him, while his wife and daughter sat in the rear. Like a stamp on a letter, Sr and JR were glued together in a manner that brought joy to our hearts. Now, Sean loved a party but he was not the loudest at our family gatherings, No, he was rather quiet and reserved but could always be found looking after his boy and the many boys and girls at the event. He was a real family man who was committed to his wife, children and grand daughter as well as to the children of his relatives and friends. Sean was a loving, caring, and nurturing man who provided for his family and who remained present with them. We thank God for the life of Sean Slaughter - a life to be copied. The memories we made with him will live in our hearts forever,

Praying for the family,

Aunt Daisy and Uncle Rickey with love from LA.

“ Sean was one of my favorite cousins. (I actually knew him) Although I didn't come around often. Every time he saw me in the streets he'd say Don't ever forget you got family out here alright? And give me big hugs and much love. He'd say don't be a stranger come chill with my family. Never got that chance. I will truly miss you cousin . You had my back even when I didn't know. Rest In Peace
