“ It is with great sadness that I extend my heartfelt condolences to the daughter, grandchildren, family, and friends of Servon Gatewood. Servon was a distant friend of mine, and I've known her since our days at James Madison Jr. High School. We shared many laughs and memories whenever we saw or spoke with each other. She will be deeply missed. Servon was always smiling, encouraging, and ready with a “right now” prayer when you needed it most. Her kindness and faith touched many lives. During this time of loss, I take comfort in Psalm 34:18: “The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” May God surround your family with peace, strength, and comfort in the days ahead.

It is with great heartfelt sadness that I brought myself to extend my sincere condolences to the immediate family. Servon was like family to my family I've known her husband since birth and when they became acquainted we all became acquainted and thats been years ago. Servon Im going to miss your quietness, your smile, your pleasantness, your spades playing, our talks about the Lord amongst other things. We loved you however GOD loved you more and chose one of his angels to join his heavenly garden. May the family be graced with GOD'S peace and strength.

This is a hard one LORD!. With great sadness and unbelief. I thank YOU for the life of sweet Von whose love for CHRIST was evident in both word and deed. Her kindness, faith, and gentle spirit touched me and others to JESUS. Though I grieve, I rejoice knowing she is now at home with the Lord that she served so faithfully. Her legacy of love will remain with us until we meet again. We thank YOU for the life and witness of my dear friend. LORD wrap YOUR loving and comforting arms around Meech and family as they deal with their loss. IN JESUS NAME, AMEN
