“ To Jimmy, Pooh, Alvin and Carolyn Jones, Michael, Carolyn and Titus, other family and friends, it is with a heavy heart that I extend to all of you my heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your/our dear loved one, Sharleen.

Sharleen was highly respected as the second matriarch of her family her mother, my aunt Corrine being the first matriarch. I know that she will be dearly missed as a wife, mother, aunt, sister, cousin and friend.

I have great memories of Sharleen from the times that your parents would bring all of you down to Virginia as children to visit our now late maternal grandparents and other family members. Sharleen was always pleasant and I just loved to hear her talk about whatever was going on in her life in Maryland, whether it was college, (BSU), or her love of the Delfonics, or her new found love and husband to be, Jimmy.

Sharleen loved her family in a way that was as large as life itself; there was nothing too good for her to do for those she loved and cherished. She and I had many conversation in the latter years about our love for our sons and our aspirations for them. She often talked about Yahweh and the word of God and I am so thankful to know that she was in a right relationship with God.

Sharleen would often say all of the women in our family that we really love our children and I would agree. Sharleen grew up in a Christian family with her parents, Uncle Charles and Aunt Corrine, "Bug" and she was taught to love her family and to be at peace with others.

I feel comforted in knowing as I hope you will be, that Sharleen has joined our family in the presence of the Lord, and that she has fought a good fight and is now awaiting her crown in glory.

We will be encouraged because God has promised to wipe away all of our tears in due season. So let's honor her with unity and continued love of family. And most of all, to press toward the mark of the high calling of the Lord as our Lord and savior.

In Christian Love,

Rosalyn Davis, Cousin
