“ Harry and Family: I was saddened to hear of the loss of your lovely wife and friend. I can remember her smile and great personality. I know she may be physically gone, but she will always be with you in spirit. Keep her in your heart and in time the pain of your loss will lessen.

“ I met Sheila when I was visiting her sister Besty and Winfield Crews in Tarboro, North Carolina. Sheila was visiting also, for a family reunion. Needless to say, with her adorable personality, I knew that she was a great person. I would often ask Betsy to let Sheila know that she was in my prayers as she was going through her illness. To the family, God knows best and I know that he will take care of you and Shelia. God rest her soul.

“ Shelia,

We were so sadden to hear that one of "GOD's" children was call home to be with him. We will surely miss Shelia, she was one in a million. Our prayers go out to the family, we will always remember her and will forever keep her in our hearts and will continue to pray for the family. Love to all.

“Sheila always had a sweet spirit. A very kind and compassionate person. Back in 2001 my best girlfriend lived around the corner from Sheila and Nolan. She was very ill and did not want to meet Sheila due to her appearance. Sheila came out of the house and was so friendly and compassionate towards Wanda. I never thought in my wildest dreams that Sheila would eventually succumb to the exact same illness that took Wanda in 2001.

*"Sheila", You fought a good fight. And, I am so happy that you experienced a wonderful life here on earth...a wonderful husband, beautiful children and family, a great Fed Gov't job, a beautiful home where you welcomed others, being able to travel and experience other places in this world and other cultures. Yes, like you said..."I've had a good life". Some of us can't say that...you were truly blessed. And, I am grateful to have known you. And, grateful to God that you were so blessed. And, grateful to have had the opportunity to have prayer with you during your time of illness. I pray for your soul...for your spirit to be in the Everlasting Arms of the Lord. Until Later Sheila...Rest in Peace.
No more sickness, no more pain...just peace.*

Love, Jestine and Jesse

“Shelia is the one person that I will always remember for having the knack for making a room "light up" whenever she walked in. Grace, personality, style, and always being a lady were her most amazing traits. Those are memories that I will always treasure From her brother-in-law, Winfield Crews
