“ I remember the first day that we met and you didn't even know me and you treated me with so much love. From that point on we were first forever. I appreciate your kind words, your motivation to push me to get better, your shoulder when i was going through. You are an AMAZING Woman and I thank God for allowing you to come into my life. I miss you Reece!!!

“ Reece you were a virtuous woman and I thank God for placing you in my life. You have shown those around you how to walk with a little more grace, talk with a little more compassion and patience, and to give and spread love unconditionally. You will never be forgotten.

“ Shereese, You are and always have been such a beautiful, sweet, encouraging, and gentle soul. We met in 10th grade and managed to keep in touch throughout adulthood and motherhood. I will miss randomly running into you in Waldorf, seeing your ever smiling face and sharing a quick genuine embrace. Thoughts of you will always be cherished, for people like you are so rare. Praying for everyone effected by your passing but knowing they have nothing but good memories of you brings me comfort during this time. Love you gorgeous!!

“ My childhood was great when I moved next door to your family. You and Tia were the dynamic duo sisters. Your mom & dad were the sweetest so it was only right that you were also..... R.I.P beautiful ♥♥ Condolences to the family.

“ Reece,

You were family. The closest to a sister-in-law I've had. Beautiful. Caring. Driven. Unique. From the moment I met you, I never stopped being impressed by your character, spirit, and drive. You were such a wonderful person. Perhaps too wonderful for this world. While it's difficult accepting you're no longer here and I'm concerned for Julia, I know God is keeping us. I know Julia will be fine and will do you and Evan proud. And the village you surrounded her with will make sure she has all she needs.

“ It's crazy how we met...Sitting on the same row at Xscape movie theater in Brandywine, MD. My son instantly recognized and said to me "mommy she's a Zeta!" I looked over and sure as day there you were with Julia. I can't remember what we were there to see but what I do remember was the instant connection and continued sisterhood bond through the years until present. I will cherish your smile, hanging with you and just catching up. Thanks you for being open, caring, and loving in all that did while you were here. Love you Sis!
