“ I miss you already Shirley, I met the man who would give you the fish and your friend in your old building. Seen some things that we would have laughed about today. You know your daughter and your grandsons, and will always be in my prayers. Sleep sweetly in the Lord.

“ Shirley, Shirley..God picked you next to come home and rest with Him. God knew you had done enough. I met Shirley when I moved to Ft. Washington Manor in 2008. A person had to get use to Shirley's ways of speaking straight, but with a very pleasant personality that could not be ignored by anyone. I will always remember Shirley, in her hoover, helping with parties, picnics, playing the oldies, showed movies, singing songs with a voice you ouldn't ignore. Shirley was a serious, marvelous lady. She will be missed by those who knew her, but never forgotten. Sleep on, Rest on..you are now out of pain and suffering. I cry for you, but I know you are in good hands.

“ Dear Dottie & Family of Shirley,

It's been such a long time since I have seen or spoken to any of you. Shirley & I were BFF's before it was called that. Dottie, do remember going to 6 Flags & the clown, looking like BOZO, oh how you & Reggie chased him around. I remember how we use to go to Hanes Point & hang out & before we knew it the rest of the crew would show. Wendy, Pam, Veronica & Ronnie. The Friday or Saturday nights we cooked up food & played Bid Whist. Listening to the oldie but goodies & her song when she had a Boston coming, I am Telling You, I'm not going, Oh my GOD did we had a ball. Then, as time passed things changed & we all went separate ways. I miss all of you ladies, each one contributed something special in our FRIENDSHIP. We shared so much more that I can write, I will cherish forever.

My heartfelt sympathy to all of you, just know that whatever pain she may have been in she shall not longer hurt.

My dear friend Shirley, go now in peace with your Heavenly Father. Watch over Dottie, your grandbabies, & the rest of your dear Family, become their ANGEL from above.

FOOTPRINTS, says at the end: "MY PRECIOUS, PRECIOUS CHILD, I LOVE YOU AND I WOULD NEVER LEAVE YOU. DURING YOUR TIMES OF TRIAL AND SUFFERING, WHEN YOU SAW ONLY ONE SET OF FOOTPRINTS, IT WAS THEN THAT I CARRIED YOU.

So remember BROWN FAMILY, YOU'RE NOT ALONE..

SO LONG MY FRIEND, TIL WE MEET AGAIN.. NOT FORGOTTEN, PEACEFULLY REST.
