I met Shirley many years ago as part of the Montgomery County Police Department's Peer Support Team and assisted at the Parent's Picnic during Police Week. She was truly a great woman who was able to help other parents grieve the loss of a child while she herself grieved for her beloved son. You've touched thousands of lives Shirley, job well done good and faithful servant. You will be missed.

My sincere condolences for the passing of Shirley Anderson Gibson. I met Shirley 62 years ago as her 7th grade classmate in Columbia South Carolina. I learned that she was born under the Capricorn zodiac sign as Dr. Martin Luther King and that they also shared the same January 15th birthday, During our secondary and high school education, I found Shirley to be ambitious, organized, practical, goal-oriented, warm, kind and friendly. May God bless her soul and may she be at peace in Heaven as she unites with her son, Brian. Isaac Bucky McGraw Shirley's smile was contagious. She was always upbeat and had something positive to share. We had great times together on Wilkes Road. The memories of the good times will remain. Rest In Peace, Shirley.
