“ *I often called my sister-in-law, "Shirl the Pearl", she would be so tickled. I guess my best moment was when she was sitting in the lobby, on Mothers Day that particular year and I was headed to drop a Mothers Day card off to my mom, her Mother-in-law, Minnie. I had extra cards in hand and gave Shirley a card on the spot. She said "I didn't have to " but I simply told her that "I wanted to". Shirley said "thank you so much "with a big kool aid kind of smile on her face as I wished her "Happy Mothers Day". My Deepest and Sincere condolences to my niece, Tanya and family and nephew, Rodney and family. God bless the entire extended family during this time. My love to you all. Rest easy Shirl the Pearl. Now your a Diamond. Respectfully,
Din-key*
