“ Siron was a kind wonderful man who gave so much to others. He had a smile that would light up a room. He had a wonderful laugh and always had a way of making even the worse day better. He gave the best hugs. He had a very strong sense of faith so I know he is at home now. I wish so much in my heart he was still here. I protected him like a big sister would have.

*I guess Heaven was needing a hero
Somebody just like you
Brave enough to stand up for what you believe and follow it through
When I try to make it make sense in my mind
The only conclusion I come to
Is that Heaven was needing a hero like you*

“ Siron always had a smile on his face, and his smile was contagious. Always willing to help and go above and beyond to lend a helping hand. His presence will forever be missed. I send my condolences to his friends and family during this time.

“ Happiness is a choice and Siron chose it every single day. Siron's spirit was felt in every interaction and encounter, it was infectious. He has left a empty place in all of our hearts and will be missed greatly.

“ Siron had a larger than life personality who made me smile and laugh at work. He always knew how to get things done. We both enjoyed college and NBA basketball. We had many discussions about who was the better team.... Duke or UVA, Lakers or Cavaliers or Celtics. I know he continued to coach in youth leagues. His big heart, generosity towards others infectious smile will be missed by many.

“ *SIRON "BIG LEONARD" ARIEL BIG BROVA is what I called you..
You have truly been a big brova to me all these years. We grew up only a block away. You made my high school days very joyful with your personality, your huge voice and your beautiful smile.*

Then we end up work at NIH together and I had a BLAST everyday was something new in your world and I was all for it.

I'm going to miss you my friend my brother so very much...

Rest in Peace
