

Mr. Steve Allen Walton

January 17, 1948 - February 24, 2021

Obituary

Steve A. Walton was born on January 17, 1948 to the late Mary Sewyer and Dempsey Walton in Norfolk, Virginia.

Steve received his education from Washington, D.C. public schools and served in the United States Army. Following his military career, he attended Northern Community College for culinary, and worked for St. Mary's Court until his retirement in 2000.

Steve enjoyed watching scary movies, completing puzzles, and getting lost in a good book. But above all he loved to cook. He was most known for his delicious liver and rice, and his amazing rice pudding. In the winter, he would make his children snow cream with the snow.

Steve loved his fish. Ever since his kids were little he was crazy about his fish. Bella was his roll DOG!! Steve could always put a smile on your face when needed. He enjoyed being around his family and was always there when you needed him. He truly loved and cared for everyone around him. Steve was the glue to this family. He brought everyone together, even through the hard and tough times.

Steve is preceded in death by his wife, Danise Walton. Steve leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters, Toya Brown and Makeisa Craig; step-daughter, Donnise Young; five grandchildren, Jamal Brown, leisha Brown, Jamiya Brown, Zora Craig, and Zaila Craig; five great-grandchildren; three brothers, Gerald Walton, Earl Walton, and Sherman Walton; sister, Cora Faine; other relatives and friends.
