“ Peaches family, oh how I was shocked that you had taken wings and flew away. I always had lots of respect for you, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Candice. I did not know your older sister name, but being your Music Director at Metropolitan Wesley for so many years, I will always consider you to be the best soprano soloist that sang under me for almost 22 years. I will never forget your mom, Mrs. Brown coaxed me to allow you to sing under me and what a bless it was. Candice it was a blessing to have you also. Peaches, I will never forget you and how you sang "He Decided to Die" and "Goin up Yonder" . I loved you then. I love you now. Tell all the Metropolitan Wesley family members hello for me. I know your parents are glad that you are with them so is Rev. and Mrs. McArthur.
