

Terence O. Billingsley

June 23, 1952 - September 4, 2013

Fell asleep and was called Home into the loving arms of our Lord on September 3, 2013. He was born on June 23, 1952, in Washington, DC to the late James O. and Katie L. Billingsley. He was raised in Washington, DC by his late parents, where he attended DC public schools until he graduated from Dunbar High School. Education was important to Terry and he continued his education at the computer technical school, Lear Siegler, where he honed his computer skills and graduated. Soon after graduation, he was hired by Riggs National Bank in downtown Washington D.C. After Riggs was liquidated, he found work at the Kiplinger Magazine (KCMS) on East West Highway until the untimely death of his son, Terry. He was never the same after that. His health soon became an issue as he was diagnosed with congestive heart failure. It was his heart that was quietly stilled. Terry leaves to mourn, his sister, Brenda Billingsley; brother Jim Billingsley, Sr.; aunts Barbara Goldring, and Kate Williams; uncle Robert and wife Josephine Billingsley; good friend Edward Dalton; and a host of other family and friends. His Home going service will be held at the Alexander Pope Funeral Home, 2617 Pennsylvania Avenue, S.E., Washington DC 20020 at 10 a.m. on Friday, September 20, 2013. Afterward, his family will journey to Fort Lincoln Cemetery in Brentwood MD where he will be laid to rest. It is hoped that you will join us to say good-bye.

Tribute Wall

“ Terence O. Billingsley

January 28, 2023 at 02:13 PM

“ Terence O. Billingsley

January 28, 2023 at 10:26 AM

“ It is such sad news to hear of the passing of Mr. Terence Billingsley. May the God of all comfort be with you and your family during this most difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4

~With Deepest Sympathy

P. Roberts - September 26, 2013 at 10:00 AM